Sept. 4, 1941 - Sept. 15, 2015

HARLAN — Donna Lee

Fiscus Holloway was born in Harlan on September 4, 1941 to Raymond Ellis and Lovie Marie (Dent) Fiscus. She had a brother, Victor Raymond (Junior), and a sister, Rose Marie. Donna attended country schools from kindergarten through fourth grade and then attended Harlan Schools until she graduated in 1959. She then went to work in the Shelby County Treasurer's Office in Harlan until she went to college at York College in York, NE.

She was baptized by Evangelist Royce Blackburn while attending York College and was a member of the Harlan Church of Christ.

March 12, 1961, Donna was united in marriage to Stewart Frederick (Fred) Holloway. Four children were born into this union: David Frederick, Steven Scott, Kenneth Ray, and Lisa Marie. Fred and Donna lived and farmed near Kirkman until Fred passed away in 1987 and then Donna moved to Harlan. She worked at CDS in Harlan from November 1988 to August 2005. Donna loved music, singing, watching movies, and house remodeling shows on television. She was a very kind and giving person. Donna passed away September 15, 2015, at age 75.
