

Mary Sue Ilg, 46

Sept. 12, 1944 — May 27, 1991

HARLAN — Mary Suzanne Ilg, daughter of John and Mary Duggan Townley was born Sept. 12, 1944, at Sacramento, CA. As a small girl, she moved with her family, first to Lebanon and then Loomis, NE. They then moved to Dalton, NE., where she graduated from Dalton High School in 1962. She then attended the University of Nebraska at Lincoln, NE., where she graduated in 1966 with a B.S. in Medical Technology.

It was there that she met Loren Ilg, and March 18, 1966, they were married at Red Oak. They became the parents of two children. In 1967, she became a certified medical technologist, working in hospital laboratories in NE., IA., N.D., and IN., the past eleven years at Bergan Mercy Hospital in Omaha. She had just recently accepted a position with Bergan Mercy as an area laboratory sales representative. She died May 27, 1991, at Myrtue Memorial Hospital in Harlan at age 46 years, eight months and 15 days. She was a former member of Faith-Westwood United Methodist Church in Omaha, and was presently a member of First United Methodist Church in Harlan. She was also a member of the National Medical Technologist Society.

Preceding her in death was her father. Surviving her is her husband, Loren of Harlan; a son, Shawn M. (Laura) Ilg of Des Moines; a daughter, Kellie Ilg of Omaha; and her fiancée Steve Beresh of Omaha; her mother, Mary Townley of Harlan; her mother-in-law, Helen Ilg of Lincoln, NE.; brother-in-law, Lynn (Judy) Ilg of Denver, CO.; two nieces, and much family.

Funeral services were held May 31, 1991, at Faith-Westwood United Methodist Church in Omaha with Rev. Janne A. Clinton of First United Methodist Church in Harlan, officiating. Burial was in Calvary cemetery in Omaha with Joe Hartnett, Bob Glowacki, Gary Schwede, John Waterman, Benny Hochman, and Warren L. Poldberg, casketbearers. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
