

Olive Ickes, 87

Feb. 25, 1917 - Dec. 7, 2004

HARLAN — Olive Elaine Ickes, daughter of Frede and Anna Paulsen Olsen, was born Feb. 25, 1917, in Kimballton. She attended school in Exira.

Olive married George W. Ickes Oct. 20, 1937, in Harlan. They were the parents of one daughter, Betty. After their marriage George and Olive made their home in Harlan where Olive was employed at the Evergreen Inn and the Harlan Produce. George died Nov. 18, 1973 and Olive remained at her home in Harlan until moving to the Friendship Home in Audubon in 1989. She died Dec. 7, 2004 at the Friendship Home at age 87 years, nine months and 10 days.

Olive was preceded in death by her husband; one brother, Ben; and one grandchild, Derick, who died in 1983. She is survived by her daughter, Betty (Robert) Sorensen of Chaparral, NM; one brother, Robert Olsen (Janie) of Conyers, GA; one sister, Norma Hughes of Omaha, NE; three grandchildren, Kenneth Sorensen, Brenda (Allen) Nabors and Jodi (Steve) Wroblewski; four great grandchildren, Jamie and Chelsea Nabors, Ryan and Alex Wroblewski; nieces, nephews, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Dec. 10, 2004 at Pauley Jones Funeral Home with Pastor Steven Frock clergy. Casket bearers were Virgil Koppold, Mike Larsen, Clarence Coenen, Allan Ickes and Tom Larsen. Burial was in the Shelby Cemetery. Pauley Jones Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

