

Harlan, Iowa
News Advertiser
pg 2-A, Saturday
July 23, 1988

Ellis V. Jessen, 81

Ellis V. Jessen, 81, of Neola died Thursday, July 21, at a local hospital.

He had suffered a fatal heart attack Wednesday before his pickup left the road, hit a curve sign and travelled up over a rise, becoming airborne for about 418 feet.

He was born in Boomer Township, Pottawattamie County, and has been a lifetime resident. He farmed in the Neola area for many years and was a member of the RLDS Church.

Survivors include two brothers, Owen of Underwood and Neil of Neola; five sisters, Mrs. Grace Dideriksen of Honey Creek, Mrs. Edith Meadows and Mrs. Emily Killpack, both of Neola, Mrs. Ilo Harman of Minden, and Mrs. Ione Turner of Council Bluffs.

Services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Woodring Funeral Home Chapel, Elder Francis Hathaway of the RLDS Church in Logan officiating. Burial will be in the Grange Cemetery at Honey Creek.

The family will receive friends from 7 to 8:30 p.m. Friday at the funeral home.

Memorials are suggested to the RLDS Church, Logan.