John Kaufman, 33

HARLAN - John Kevin Kaufman, the son of Gus and Delphine "Gussie" Kaufman Molony was born Sept. 15, 1955, in Harlan. He died on July 19, 1989, at the Baptist Hospital in Phoenix, AZ., at age 33 years, 10 months and four days. He was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic faith and attended St. Joseph's School in Earling and Irwin Community School before graduating from Harlan Community High School in 1974.

After high school, he attended the Denver Institute of Technology at Englewood, CO., where he studied drafting, math, physics through color television, and received his Second Class FCC License. In Dec. of 1978, he then received his First Class FCC License. He then returned to Harlan where he was employed at Precision Electronics as an electronic technician. In 1979, he moved to Sutherland, NE., where he worked with Unitel of Nebraska in telephone installation before moving to the Denver area in 1981. He was employed there as a telephone technician for ATC of Denver. In 1986, he became a telephone technician for the Denver Office of Vesta, Inc. He moved to Phoenix, AZ., in 1988 where he was a customer support technician for Communication Consultants, Inc, a position he held at the time of his death. His education and experience qualified him to provide the technical assistance and installation expertise for over 50 different brands of communication systems.

He was preceded in death by his father, Gus Kaufman in 1988. Surviving him is his mother, Delphine "Gussie" Molony of Harlan; a sister, Julienne (Mrs Gene) Wiig of Kirkman; two brothers, Keith Kaufman of Harlan; and Kevin Kaufman of Los Vegas, NV., and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was concelebrated Aug. 5, 1989 at St. Michael's Catholic Church, Harlan with Rev. Edward Kelly as celebrant and Rev. Kenneth Gross concelebrated. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
