

Rosemary Helen Koppold, 86

Nov. 16, 1931 - March 29, 2018

HARLAN – Rosemary Helen Koppold was born Nov. 16, 1931 to Alfons and Marcella (Langfeld) Klein in Harlan. She was baptized and received her First Communion and confirmed at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Earling. She graduated from St. Joseph's High School, Earling.

On July 2, 1951, Rosemary was united in marriage to Virgil Koppold at St. Joseph's Catholic Church in Earling. Five sons and six daughters were born to this union. After their marriage, Virgil and Rosemary farmed for many years. They were members of St. Michael's Catholic Church in Harlan.

Rosemary loved cooking, baking, canning, gardening, quilting, embroidering, reading, playing cards, sewing, dancing, and singing with the Golden Aires.

In addition to her parents, Rosemary was preceded in death by two brothers, Alfons (Paul) and Bernard Klein, her son Paul, daughter Barbara Sullivan (Ed) and her grandson Paul Sullivan.

Those remaining to cherish Rosemary's memory include her husband of 66 years, Virgil Koppold of Rose Vista Nursing Home in Woodbine; her children: Terry (Cheryl) of Harlan, Mike (Jean) of Council Bluffs, Chuck (Junie) of San Antonio, TX, Connie Carmichael (Jeff) of Newton, Catie Walker of Port Orange, FL, Faye Kelly (Alan) of Rancho Cucamonga, CA, Sally Koppold of Papillion, NE, Joan Mabee (Ron) of Covina, CA and Scott (Michelle) of Harlan, her son-in-law Ed Sullivan of Woodbine, 21 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild, three brothers Donald Klein (JoEllen) of Earling, Charles Klein (Marie) of Earling, and Richard Klein (Julie) of Earling and one sister-in-law Maxine (Mick) Klein of Audubon.

