

Kristy Lynne Linde, 39 ✓

May 1, 1954 — June 11, 1993

CARROLL — Kristy Lynne Linde, 39, of Glidden died unexpectedly at Fulford, CO., June 11, 1993. She had been there on vacation since June 3, 1993.

She had worked at different jobs through the years including, Dental Assistant in Omaha before she was married, worked at New Hope Village Group home, was a teacher assistant in Special Needs at Fairview Elementary School in Carroll, and worked as a teachers assistant for Special Education at Carroll High School, had worked as an assistant supervisor for Special Education with the Job Corps., and did volunteer work for Fairview Elementary and Carroll High School in Carroll. Kristy had lived in Glidden since Oct. of 1983, coming here from Grimes.

She was the daughter of Leland and Janet Ickes Terry. She was married to Bill Linde April 9, 1983 at the Methodist Church in Grimes. She was a member of the Carroll Country Club, and had worked with Brownie Troop #264, she was on the Odd Couples Bowling League, and the Mother and Daughter Bowling League. She was born May 1, 1954 in Co. Bluffs, and grew up in Omaha, NE. She attended and graduated from Marion High School in Omaha in 1972. She then attended an area school for Nursing Education.

Surviving are her husband, Bill of Glidden; a son, Raymond Valgora and a daughter, Michelle Valgora, both of Omaha, NE.; 2 daughters, Lissa and Lorri Linde, both of Glidden; and a sister, Karla Catron (Lynn) of Rogers, AR.; a brother, Lee Terry (Robyn) of Omaha, NE.; and a sister, Robin Voge (Stan) of TX.; her parents, Leland and Janet Terry of Omaha, NE.; and her parents-in-law, Arthur and Docia Linde of Harlan; and an uncle Paul Ickes (Carol) of Co. Bluffs.

Funeral services were held June 16, 1993 at Peace Lutheran Church in Glidden with Pastor Rick Hamilton of the Grace Baptist Church in Glidden, officiating. Burial was in the Merle Hay Memorial cemetery at Glidden. Casketbearers were Roger Hartwigsen, John Gibson, Brian Johnson, Jim Genter, Lynn Stork and Jeff Fielder.