

Anna C. Lippold, 98

AVOCA - Anna Christina Lippold was born in Shelby County on March 10, 1890. She was the daughter of Johann and Wilhelmina Ploog Plagman. She was one of eight children in the family. She attended country school near Corley.

She married William Lippold Feb. 1, 1911 at her family home. They lived the first three years of their married life near Spencer, NE. They then returned to Iowa living first near Corley then in Shelby. They were the parents of five children. They had been married for 63 years, when Bill died in Feb., 1973. She was active in the United Lutheran Church in Shelby, 4-H Clubs and Garden Clubs. She had been a resident of the Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan since April of 1985. It was there she died on Feb. 23 at age 98 years, 11 months and 13 days.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; three daughters, Marie Lippold, Wilma Ann Miller and Mildred Finley; five brothers and sisters, Chris Plagman, Dora Holst, Alvena Schnack, Emma Claussen and John Plagman. She is survived by her daughters, Irma Cameron of San Diego, CA and Martha Gardner of Mesa, AZ; sons-in-law, Dr. Dale Cameron and Dr. Charles H. Miller of Littleton, CO; eight grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren and one great-great grandchild; one brother, Ernest Plagman of Shelby; and one sister, Lillie Plumb of Harlan; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at Berthusen-Knutson Funeral Home, Avoca, Feb. 27, 1989 with Pastor Stan Nielsen officiating. Burial was in Graceland cemetery, Avoca with casket bearers Edward Holst, Alvin Schnack, Henry Plagman, Robert Plagman, Harvey Claussen and Edwin Plagman.