

Harlan, Iowa Tribune

Tuesday January 23, 1990, pg 7-A

Russell P. Lund, 72

HARLAN - Funeral services for Russell P. Lund, 72, were held Jan. 18, 1990 at the Campbell-Aman Funeral Chapel with burial in the Blair cemetery with Rev. Otto Zwanziger, officiating.

He was born Dec. 14, 1917 to Nicholas and Marie Hansen Lund. He married Marcelyn Rexroth, Nov. 25, 1949 in Blair, NE. He was a WW II veteran. He attended Dana College and the University of Nebraska in Lincoln receiving his degree in pharmacy. He worked in Superior and Fremont, NE., and worked at Norgaard's Pharmacy in Harlan, for 31 years.

He is survived by his wife, Marcelyn; two sons, Mark of Ames; Richard of Tucson, AZ.; and by one daughter, Julie (Richard) Christiansen of Penacook, N.H. He is also survived by one brother, Ray Lund of Blair, NE., and by three sisters, Una Lund of Blair; Lona Lund of Blair and Norma (Mrs Frank) Van Steenhoven of Parker CO.; by 8 grandchildren and several nephews.