

Louis L. Larson, 79 ✓

CO. BLUFFS - Louis L. Larson was born in Crawford County. He farmed west of Harlan until 1950, when he moved to Harlan and ran the Westside Tavern. During the 1960's, he moved to Co. Bluffs where he worked for Herman Brothers as a teamster driver until retirement. He had lived in Co. Bluffs for the past 30 years. He died March 1, 1998, at a Phoenix, AZ hospital.

He was preceded in death by a daughter, Ardeth Adams of Newport, OR in 1975. He is survived by his close friend, Myrtle Swanger of Co. Bluffs; his daughters, Carolyn Larson, Santa Barbara, CA, and Donna Reed of Manchester, a son, Richard Larson of Oak Grove, OR; eight grandchildren; a brother, Duane V. Larson, Lakewood, CO; two sisters, Laura Pedersen, Star, ID and Ula Schuemann, Utica, IL, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held March 7, 1998, at the Cutler Chapel in Co. Bluffs, with Rev. Mark Heath, Epworth United Methodist Church officiating. Burial was in the Harlan Cemetery.