

Nancy Lefebber, 40

Oct. 24, 1963 - Nov. 24, 2003

CLARINDA – Nancy Ann Lefebber was born Oct. 24, 1963, at Clarinda, to Dean Thompson and Carol (Mack) Thompson. She was a graduate of South Page High School in College Springs.

After graduation, she married Danny Bedsworth. The couple moved to Georgia and lived there for five years. They returned to this area and Nancy worked at convenience stores in Clarinda. For the last nine years she has worked at Westridge Quality Care in Clarinda. When she quit this summer for health reasons she was office manager for the facility.

April 1, 1994, she married Lon Lefebber at Shambaugh. She died Nov. 24, 2003, at the Clarinda Regional Health Center from pancreatic cancer at age 40 years.

Nancy is survived by her husband, Lon of Clarinda; children, Christina, Joshua and Michael Bedsworth; father, Dean Thompson, and Jan Laughlin of Shambaugh; mother, Carol (Paul) Hunt of Clarinda; sisters, Denise (Earl) Booher of Shambaugh; Cheryl Campbell of Braddyville; Amy Wheeler of Shambaugh; Angie Thompson of Fayetteville, AR; and Crystal (Jason) Hayes of Clarinda; brothers, Joe Thompson (Sara) of Walla Walla, WA; Bryon Peterson of Fayetteville, AR; and Todd Allen Peterson of Fayetteville; grandparents, Mary Marie Thompson of Clarinda; mother and father-in-law, Russell and Dorothy Lefebber of Harlan; stepmother, Kathy Fitzgerald (Pat) of Fayetteville; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Nov. 28, 2003, at Eickemeyer Funeral Chapel in Clarinda, with burial at Oak Grove Cemetery in Clarinda.