

Harlan, Iowa News Advertiser
Friday June 15, 1990, pg 2-C

Greg Mathiasen, 22

HARLAN - Gregory Ronald Mathiasen, son of Ronald and Linda (Chambers) Mathiasen, was born Feb. 22, 1968 at Harlan. "Jiggs", as he was nicknamed, attended school in Harlan and Woodbine, graduated from Woodbine High School with the class of 1986. After school, he attended Western Iowa Tech in Ida Grove, where he completed his course of study in 1987. He currently resided in Co. Bluffs, where he was employed by Deitloff Construction as a carpenter.

He was involved in a recreational vehicle accident in Monona co., and was life flighted to Marion Health Center in Sioux City, May 27, 1990, after undergoing emergency surgery at age 22 years, three months and five days.

Preceding him in death were his paternal grandparents, Edward and Hannah Mathiasen and his maternal grandmother, Phyllis Carstensen Chambers. He is survived by his mother, Linda Mathiasen of Harlan; his father, Ronald Mathiasen of Blair, NE.; a brother, Curt of London, England; a sister, Suzanne Mathiasen of Harlan; and his maternal grandparents, Floyd and Kathryn Chambers of Harlan and other relatives.

Funeral services were May 29, 1990 at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan with Pastor D. Stephen Clinton of First United Methodist Church in Harlan, officiating. Burial was in Harlan cemetery with Darin Smith, Kevin Bruck, Brian Jensen, Rich Meeker, Dennis Snyder, Steven Ehlerts, Scott A. Harris and Jeffrey Outhouse serving as casketbearers. Pauley funeral Home in charge of arrangements.