

Harlan, Iowa
News advertiser
pg 3-B, Persia News
July 27, 19

IN MEMORY

Harold E. Morris, 62, 3505 Ronald Road, died Thursday at his home. He was a WW II U.S. Navy Veteran. He is survived by his wife, Wynn; four daughters, Sheryl Montgomery of Buena Vista, AR.; Judy West and Patti Fitch, both of Honey Creed and Karen Baugh of Waterloo; son, Mark of Paris Island, S.C.; mother, Heene Morris of Co. Bluffs; 17 grandchildren and six great-grandchildren. Funeral services were held Monday at the McCurdy Funeral Home Chapel with the Rev. Roger Prescott, officiating. Burial was in Hillcrest cemetery in Omaha.

Funeral services were held Wednesday morning at the Hennessey-Van-Cleave-Hurley Funeral Home in Mo. Valley for Harold A. Wohlers, 59. Burial was in the Magnolia cemetery. He died of cancer Sunday at St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha. He was a farmer with his wife, Rita, in the Logan/Magnolia area. Survivors besides his wife include two daughters, Delila Rife of Keller, TX., and Linda Wohlers of Logan; one son, Mike of Pisgah; mother, Minnie of Mo. Valley; three sisters, Arlene Driver and Gladys Blois both of Honey Creek and Wilma Clark of Crapell, NE.