

Jean E. Morrison, 74

UNDERWOOD - Jean E. Morrison, Underwood, died Friday afternoon at her residence following a short illness. Born in Honey Creek, she lived in the Portsmouth area until moving to Underwood in 1967.

She taught school in the Shelby County School District ten years and twenty years in the Co. Bluffs School District at Lewis and Clark and last at the Gunn School before retiring in 1981. She was a member of the Retired Teacher's Association and the University of Nebraska at Omaha Alumni. Her husband, Clifford died in 1982 and two sisters Dorothy and Gladys also preceded her in death.

She is survived by her son, Clifford "Bud" Morrison of Portsmouth; her daughter, Mrs Glen (Edith) Miller of Estes Park, CO; one brother, William McIntosh Jr. of Honey Creek; four sisters, Tress Botos of Missouri Valley; Maude Stephens of Honey Creek; Wilma Burdick of Ruthven and Nellie Honeywell of Persia; nine grandchildren; nine great-grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at the Meyer Funeral Home Chapel with Pastor Berni Fricke of the Underwood Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was in the Branson cemetery. Meyer Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.