

Morley H. Norman, 71

March 20, 1922 — Aug. 25, 1993

CO. BLUFFS — Morley H. Norman, 71, died Aug. 25, 1993 at Rose Vista Nursing Home in Woodbine. He was born in Shelby and lived most of his life in Co. Bluffs. He was a meat cutter for Aksarben Beef for 25 years and a WW II veteran. He was a member of Veteran's of Foreign Wars Post No. 737 and the Cooties.

He was preceded in death by his wife, Lorene, in 1982. Survivors include 4 daughters, Sandra Norman and Patricia Clayton of Co. Bluffs; LeAnn Browning of Omaha; and Mary Taylor of Rochester, N.Y.; 3 sons, Michael of Co. Bluffs; and John and Steven of Omaha; 3 sisters, Bonnie Lett of Co. Bluffs; Lois Brooks of Valley Springs, CA.; and Marge Vaughn of Olympia, WA.; 13 grandchildren; 2 great-grandchildren; nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held Aug. 28, 1993 at Meyer Funeral Home with Rev. David Ashby officiating. Graveside military rites were performed by V.F.W. Post No. 737 at Cedar Lawn cemetery.