

Agnes Ann Olson, 59 ✓March 3, 1933 — June 30, 1992

CO. BLUFFS — Agnes Ann Olson, daughter of Raymond and Ethel Gochee Powers was born March 3, 1933, on a farm at Clare near Fort Dodge in Webster county. She died June 30, 1992, at the home of her sister-in-law, Tessie Porter of Harlan at age 59 years, three months and 27 days. She was baptized and confirmed in the Catholic Church, and as a young girl moved with her family to Des Moines, where she attended St. John's Catholic School. After the family moved to Burlington, she graduated from Burlington High School in 1950. After school, she was employed at the Singer Sewing Machine Company in Burlington. After moving to Atlantic, she and her parents opened the Sewing Machine Shop in Atlantic.

Sept. 5, 1970, she married Leo "Duke" Olson at Blair, NE. After their marriage, they made their home in Co. Bluffs, where she worked as a custodian in the Kreft Elementary School of the Lewis Central School System. After the death of her husband on Aug. 24, 1982, she continued to reside in her home in Co. Bluffs until the time of her death. She was a member of Queen of Apostles Catholic Church in Co. Bluffs.

She was preceded in death by her father and her husband. Surviving are her sons, Michael Orr of Co. Bluffs; James Orr and Kyle Olson of Co. Bluffs; her daughter, Julie (Dale) Story of LaVista, NE.; four grandchildren; her mother, Ethel Powers of Atlantic and her sister, Rowena Anderson of LaVista; many nieces and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian Burial was celebrated July 3, 1992, at St. Michael's Catholic Church in Harlan with Rev. Edward Kelly, celebrant. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with Mark Lynch, Ron Nielsen, Bob Pigsley, Bruce Porter, Dennis Porter and Glen "Mack" McBurney casketbearers. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
