

Edgar Paulsen, 84

HASTINGS — Edgar Richard Paulsen, the son of Nels and Dortha Sorensen Paulsen was born near Harlan July 22, 1903. He died at Red Oak, Aug. 20, 1987.

He married Pauline Sampson of Red Oak, July 24, 1935 at Rockport, MO. He was raised and attended schools near Jacksonville. He worked in Des Moines and Red Oak and farmed for nine years near Manilla. He retired to Hastings where he lived until entering Glen Haven Nursing Home in Glenwood in 1985. He was a member of the Hastings Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers, his twin, Evert, Harvey, Ralph and Lt. Vernon Paulsen; two sisters, Lillie, Mrs John Juhl and Violet (Mrs Walter) Juhl. He is survived by his wife, Pauline of Hastings; two sons, Robert of Auburn, MA and Darrell of Los Lunas, NM; 12 grandchildren and seven great-grandchildren; two brothers, Robert of Harlan and Lowell of Jacksonville Beach, FL; two sisters, Olive Burchette of Dubuque and Dorothy Castelline of Des Moines; two sisters-in-law, Alice Kalas of LeMars and Goldie Paulsen of Phoenix, AZ; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

His funeral was held Aug. 22, 1987 at Red Oak with Pastor George Westzel of Hastings, officiating, with burial in the Hastings cemetery. Craig Smith, Terry Smith, John Hall Sr., Roger Hudson, Toby Campbell and Charles Phelps were casket bearers. Selligren-Lindell Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.