

Naomi May Peters,
84

Aug. 15, 1934 - Sept. 7, 2018

TENNANT – Naomi May Peters, the daughter of Ralph D. and Myrtle O. (Campbell) Crees, was born on August 15, 1934, in Shelby. She attended Center Township Country School and Shelby High School, from which she graduated in 1953. On November 14, 1953, Naomi married Eugene Lyle Peters at the Methodist Church in Shelby. The couple settled in Tennant where Naomi worked both in and out of their home.

Naomi was a former member of the Tennant Church, where she was active in women's activities. An active homemaker, Naomi was known to make excellent baked goods, including her apple pies. She enjoyed doing crafts, and made ceramics and did tole painting for many years. Naomi treasured her family and truly enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren, who lived across the driveway from her. She loved music and playing her home organ. Everyone has their favorite beverage, and Naomi's was Pepsi.

Naomi M. Peters died on Friday, September 7, 2018, at the Elm Crest Retirement Community in Harlan. She had reached the age of 84 years and 23 days.

Naomi was preceded in death by her parents and one great-grandson, Paul Leon Peters. She is survived by her husband of 64 years, Eugene Peters of Tennant; one daughter, Linda Peters of Urbandale; one son, Ron (Donna) Peters of Tennant; two sisters, Patsy Sick and Donna (Ar-len) Kirkhart, both of Manson; three grandchildren and spouses; three great-grandchildren; and other relatives and friends.

The funeral service was held on Monday, September 10, 2018, at the Burmeister-Johannsen Funeral Home in Harlan, with Pastor Jim Boardman officiating. Dianne Book served as the musician. Honorary casket bearers were Ethan Peters, Janna May Peters, and Tyler Peters. Serving as active casket bearers were Eric and Jessica Peters, Lee and Melissa Peters, and Cari and Zach Wingert. Burial was in the Shelby Cemetery, Shelby.

The Burmeister-Johannsen Funeral Home in Harlan was in charge of the arrangements. Condolences may be left online at www.burmeisterjohannsen.com.
