

William J. Reid, 73

CO. BLUFFS - William J. Reid, a native of Dedham and a resident of Co. Bluffs for 33 years, died Nov. 8, 1996, at Jennie Edmundson Hospital following surgery and a brief illness at age 73. He was a retired truck driver. He was a veteran of WW II and a member of the D.A.V.

He is survived by two daughters, Linda Corso of Cheyenne, WY and Joan Rau of Co. Bluffs; three sons, Harold Reid of Carlisle; William E. Reid of Los Angeles, CA and Dan Reid of Denver, CO; one sister, Yvonne Whannell of Co. Bluffs; two brothers, Father Francis Reid of Mahanomen, MN and Malvern of Harlan; six grandchildren and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Nov. 12, 1996, at St. Patrick's Church, Co. Bluffs, with Msgr. Edward R. Kelly celebrant assisted by Rev. Francis Reid, his brother, officiating. Burial was in the Harlan Cemetery. Been-Belford Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.
