

Harold Rold, 77

HARLAN — Harold Owen Rold, son of Samuel and Anna (Johnson) Rold was born May 27, 1909, near Harlan. He attended grade school at "Rabbitt Hollow School" east of Harlan, and grew to adulthood on his parents' farm.

On Aug. 16, 1931, he married Arlene Steele at the Baptist Parsonage in Harlan. One son was born to this union. After they were married, he owned and operated Starlite Transfer until 1940, at which time he began farming in the Harlan area. He retired from farming in 1976, and they have made their home in Harlan since that time. He was a past member of the Bethel Baptist church, and a present member of the First Baptist church in Harlan.

He died April 6, 1987 at Myrtue hospital in Harlan at age 77 years, 10 months and 10 days.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two sisters, Luella and Lucy and two brothers, Leonard and Clifford. He is survived by his wife, Arlene of Harlan; one son, Jerry of Ankeny; three granddaughters, one great-granddaughter; two sisters, Mildred Christianson of Harlan and Lottie (Mrs Oscar) Jensen of Ankeny; nieces and nephews and many other relatives.

Funeral services were held April 9, 1987 at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan with Pastor John M. Leggett of the First Baptist church, officiating. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery with Tim Swank, Edwin Swank, Clyde Thomson, Gene Callender, Harold Blackwell and Robert Lohrmann as casketbearers. Wendell Lytle, Ellsworth Graves, Lester Meyers, Arnold G. Andersen and Arnold R. Christensen served as honorary casketbearers.
