

Relatives and friends have been notified of the death of former Harlan resident. Marian Harlan Seltzer, 82, of Silver Spring, MD, on November 20, 1999. Her husband, Morris Seltzer, 82, died on November 16, 1999.

Marian graduated from Harlan High School in 1934. Her parents owned the Harlan Drug Store which was located near the Harlan Theatre on the south side of the square.

She graduated from Stevens College in Missouri and received her law degree from George Washington University in 1941. Lucille Tryon and Mrs Lester Meyers are first cousins of Marian. The obituaries will appear in the newspaper at a later date.