

Idamae Sorenson, 100

June 8, 1914 - June 28, 2014

MORGAN HILL, CA —

Idamae Sorenson died peacefully at home on June 28, 2014. She was born June 8, 1914, and raised, along with her two brothers, Harold and Dale, on the family farm in Kirkman, to Harry and Edna V. Slates. The family moved to California in 1937.

Idamae married Paul Sorenson from Corley in 1938 in Nevada. They lived in Willows, CA for 46 years, where they raised their family and worked together in the Mobile Oil Distributorship. After retirement they moved to Morgan Hill, CA to be near family. They spent their winters in Quartzsite, AZ, where they had many friends, and traveled a lot in their RV in the United States. She was a Past Noble Grand of the Rebekahs.

Idamae is preceded in death by her husband of 62 years, Paul; son, David Sorenson; grandson, Matthew Chamness. She is survived by her daughter, Judy (Hank) Chamness of Morgan Hill, CA; four grandchildren, Susan (Fernando) Soto, Sharon D'Apuzzo, Debbie Corona, Michael Sorenson and partner Galen Duplantis; great-grandchildren, Alexandra, Matthew, Emily, Megan and Thomas Velho, Michael and Katelyn D'Apuzzo, David (Victoria) Corona, John Corona and many nieces and nephews. She lived long enough to celebrate her 100th birthday and hold her first great-great-grandson, Colton Paul Corona.

Services are being held Tuesday, July 8, 2014 at 11 a.m., at Johnson's Funeral Home in Morgan Hill, CA. Interment was in the Mt. Hope Memorial Park in Morgan Hill, CA. Donations in her memory can be made to the American Heart Association.
