

Jack F. Storek, 64

Dec. 6, 1933 - Dec. 12, 1997

OMAHA - Jack F. Storek, 64, of Omaha was born Dec. 6, 1933, at Norfolk, NE, and died Dec. 12, 1997, in Omaha after a lingering illness.

He grew up in the Madison, NE area and later he became a photographer for Union Pacific Railroad, even doing scenery pictures for their calendars.

May 18, 1963, he married Dorothy Stamp of Persia, daughter of the later Harry and Elsie Stamp. They made their home in Omaha. They were the parents of two children, son, Ron J. of Omaha, and a daughter, Amy L. of Phoenix, AZ.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy, and his children.

Funeral services were held at the Pacific Hills Lutheran Church in Omaha, Dec. 15, 1997, with burial in the Hillcrest Cemetery in Omaha.

---