

Hazel Schneider,

102

March 15, 1915 - May 22, 2017

COUNCIL BLUFFS – Hazel Hansen was born on March 15, 1915 at her home, east of Corley to Ernest and Maime (Ingrews) Hansen. She attended country school through eighth grade. Hazel helped her parents on the farm until her marriage to George Knudsen on December 20, 1934. They farmed in Shelby County most of their married life, moving to Council Bluffs in 1960. Upon George's passing, she married Howard Schnieder in 1976. Hazel enjoyed her family, her many pets over the years, gardening, canning, making homemade bread, loved to dance, and socializing until the end, even dancing on her 100th birthday.

Hazel passed away May 22, 2017 at Bethany Lutheran Home, attaining the age of 102.

Hazel is preceded in death by her parents, husband George in 1976, husband Howard in 2011, son Delmar Knudsen, great-grandson Joshua Potter, son-in-law Leonard Powell, son-in-law Jerry McIntosh, sister Alvina Jacobsen, brothers Walter Hansen and Dewey Hansen.

Hazel is survived by her daughter, Marjorie Powell-McIntosh, daughter-in-law, Carol Knudsen; grandchildren, Kathy Potter, Julie (Kevin Carroll) Powell, Bryan (Joanne) Knudsen, Rhonda (Jim) Kilday, Lisa (Mark) Elliott; five great-grandchildren, six great-great grandchildren, nieces and nephews.

Visitation with the family was held Friday, May 26 from 9 to 11 a.m. at the Hoy – Kilnoski Funeral Home in Council Bluffs. A funeral service followed immediately after visitation. Interment was in the Shelby Cemetery in Shelby.

The family will direct the memorials.
