

Harlan, Iowa Tribune

Wednesday June 17, 1987, pg 2-13

SANTA CRUZ, CA — Albert S. Thomsen, 69 of Santa Cruz, CA died of a heart attack in his home on April 22, 1987.

He was born in Harlan to Sine and Wm. Thomsen. After graduation from Harlan high school, he joined the U.S. Navy and served for 20 years as cook, butcher and baker, eventually becoming Chief Steward of the Commissary. When he was retired because of a disability, he and wife Marion lived in Soquel, CA for several years and then in Santa Cruz.

Remains of both Albert and wife Marion who died in Feb., 1987 were cremated and a private service was held. He is survived by a step-daughter, Delores Ford and children; sister, Dagmer and two nephews in northern CA.