

Harlan Tribune - 3A
Tuesday, April 16, 2013

Marilyn Schwery was notified of the sudden death of her brother, David Taggart, March 27. His visitation and rosary service was held at the Metz Mortuary in York, NE April 1 and the funeral was at the St. Joseph Catholic Church Tuesday morning April 2 also in York, NE. Burial was in the St. Joseph Catholic Cemetery. David is buried beside his son Robert.

Dave is survived by his wife Judy, son Scott and his two sons Christian and Zachary Taggart, and grandson Kady Taggart of Dave's youngest son Robert who passed away in December 2011. Phil Schwery and Darrel Leinen were pallbearers for their brother-in-law and uncle-in-law David Taggart. Attending from this area were Marilyn and Phil Schwery, Panama. Darrel, Shayla, Stephen and Benjamin Leinen of Harlan, and Robert and Susan Schmitz of Panama.

Marilyn and Phil Schwery went to the Eppley Airport Easter Sunday night to get Mandi MacDonald and daughter, Lillian, of New Milford, CT. They came to attend Mandi's uncle and Godfather, David Taggart's funeral in York, NE. Mandi and Lillian were taken back to the airport Wednesday morning to return home to eagerly awaiting brothers, Rafe, Jeremiah, and Caleb.

Marilyn Schwery's cousin, Ron Blake and wife, Suzi, of Colorado, and uncle, Merle Blake of Audubon, came to visit Thursday morning and to attend the funeral of Marilyn's brother,