

Robert Telfer, 37

Nov. 22, 1963 – May 23, 2001

CASPER, WY – Robert A. Telfer was born Nov. 22, 1963, in Denver, CO, son of Robert B. Telfer and Sally J. Merrill. He attended Kelly Walsh High School, North High School in Sioux City and Western Iowa Tech in Sioux City.

He married Judy L. Rodgers July 9, 1994, in Casper, WY. He was an electrical field technician for First Call Communication (Byron's) for 16 years. He was a member of the Church of God, Dart Association in Casper, WY, bowling league for the Wyoming Medical Center and the Archery Club. He died at the Wyoming Medical Center May 23, 2001, at age 37.

Robert is survived by his wife, Judith Telfer of Casper, WY; his mother and stepfather, Sally (William) Rollins of Elk Horn; his father and stepmother, Robert B. (Dawn) Telfer of Casper, WY; two sisters, Cynthia Saladin of St. Louis, MO and Patricia Manning of Duaneburg, NY; his grandmother, Alta Merrill of Gordon, NE; companion and friend, Spradley; aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Services were held May 25, 2001, at the Seventh Day Adventist Church in Casper, WY, with Pastor Gordon Henderson officiating. Burial was in the Wyoming Memorial Gardens in Casper. Memorial Chapel Funeral Home & Crematory in charge of arrangements.