

LAN NEWS-ADVERTISER
FRIDAY, JUNE 15, 2018

Charles D. Vieth, 96

ATLANTIC - Charles D Vieth, 96, Atlantic died Friday, June 8 at the Heritage House here.

Following a three-year stint in the U.S. Navy during WWII, he returned to Oakland opening a Dairy Queen there and in Harlan in 1952. He sold the Harlan location several years later.

He is survived by his wife, Ruth Vieth, Atlantic; daughter, Ellen (Dr. John) Barnard, New Albany, OH; son, Christopher (Laura) Vieth, Lansing, MI; grandchildren, Christian and Anna Barnard and Ryan Vieth; sisters-in-law, Irene Peck, Fergus Falls, MN and Marlene Owens, Centerville; and his brother-in-law, Wayne (Phyllis) Swanson, Norwalk.

Hockenberry Family Care, Atlantic, was in charge of the arrangements.