

Former Farm Service board member dies

Edgar Wahling, 76, Shelby, died Saturday, August 5 at the Jennie Edmundson Hospital in Council Bluffs.

Wahling was most noted for his 27-year service on the Farm Service Company's Board of Trustees, and he also served on the Farmers Savings Bank board, the Shelby Medical Center board and the Shelby County Rural Water district board.

Wahling received the S.C.O. Community Achievement Award and in 1948, he was a delegate to the first Watershed Congress in the United States.

Services were held Tuesday, August 8 at 10:30 a.m. at the United Lutheran Church in Shelby with burial following in the Shelby Cemetery.

Wahling is survived by his wife, Mada, of Shelby; four sons -- Jon of Columbus, Ohio, and Eugene, Dennis and David, all of Shelby;

Edgar Wahling