

Marjorie Walrath, 76

Oct. 21, 1916 — July 27, 1993

WALNUT — Marjorie Margaret Walrath, daughter of Louis and Margaret (Larson) Walrath was born Oct. 21, 1916 at Petersen. She died July 27, 1993, at St. Joseph's Hospital in Omaha, at age 76 years, 9 months and 6 days.

She graduated from Storm Lake High School in 1934, and attended Buena Vista College for one year before transferring to the Nursing program at Broadlawns Hospital in Des Moines, where she received her nursing degree. She then attended the University of Southern California at Berkeley where she received her Bachelor of Science Degree in nursing and then received a Master's Degree in Psychology at Ohio State University. She was then employed at Ohio State University from 1946 until her retirement. For a short time, she worked in the area school systems as a school psychologist. In July of 1981, She returned to IA to reside in the Peace Haven Retirement Home in Walnut for a time before moving to the Elm Crest Retirement Home in Harlan in 1987. In Oct. of 1990, she returned to Peace Haven, and this has been her home since that time. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Harlan.

Preceding her in death were her parents. She is survived by her brother, Robert Walrath (Virginia) of Albany, OR.

Memorial services were held July 30, 1993 at the Pauley Funeral Home with Pastor Jeff Nelsen of First Baptist Church in Harlan, officiating. Burial services were held Aug. 2, 1993 at the Oakland cemetery in Petersen with Rev. Richard Jensen conducting the services. Pauley Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.