

Donald Peter Wegner, 52

ENCINO, CA. - Donald P. Wegner, 52, of Encino, CA., died June 8, 1989 in Los Angeles as a result of a homicide. He was born May 19, 1937 in Omaha, NE., to Paul and Marcella Heliweg Oppold Wegner. He was baptized and confirmed at St. Mary's Catholic Church in Panama, where he attended grade and high school. He served two years in the Air Force. On Aug. 27, 1960, he married Helen Johns in Sioux City. Four children were born to this union: Diane, Douglas, Steve and Scott. He was a Los Angeles county resident for several years, coming from Lexington, KY. He was an electrical engineer for Veteran's Administration Hospitals for the past 26 years, having worked the last seven years at the hospital in Wadsworth.

Survivors include his wife, Helen of Encino, CA.; a daughter, Diane Wegner Bush of Westlake; three sons, Douglas Wegner of Westchester; Steve Wegner of Sherman Oaks and Scott Wegner of Encino; a sister, Louella Heese of Emporia, KS.; two brothers, Roland Wegner of Harlan; and Walt Wegner of Woodbine; and an uncle, Peter Wegner of Woodbine; and numerous nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held June 13, 1989 at St. Paschal Baylon Catholic Church, Thousand Oaks, CA. Msgr. Joe George officiating. Burial was at Pierce Brothers Valley Oaks Memorial Park, Westlake Village, CA.