

FORMER TENNANT RESIDENT DIED IN WASHINGTON

Lawrence Robert Williams passed away August 24, 1972 in a Richland, Washington hospital, at the age of 41 yrs. He was the son of Violet and M.R. Williams. He was born Jan. 5, 1931 at Shelby, Iowa. After the death of his mother the same year, he grew up in the home of Mr and Mrs Warner Thomsen. He graduated from Tennant High School in 1949, and went to Richland, Washington the same year. He had been employed at General Electric and Batelli. He is survived by two daughters and a son. Mr and Mrs Thomsen flew out on Sat. Aug. 26 to attend the services at Richland, Washington.