

Harlan, Iowa News Advertiser, Friday, January 14, 2005

Alma Warddrip, 92

Sept. 4, 1912 - Dec. 28, 2004

IRWIN — Alma M. Warddrip was born Sept. 4, 1912, in Irwin to Mabel and Cyrus Monson.

Oct. 18, 1940, Alma married Gail E. Warddrip of Ashland, NE. During her lifetime she was a paralegal for Judge Bennett Cullison, administrative assistant to Iowa Governor Herschel Loveless and vice-president and co-owner of United Chemical Livestock Feed Company. She died Dec. 22, 2004, of natural causes at age 92.

Alma was preceded in death by her husband, Gail; her father, Cyrus; her mother, Mabel; her brother, Edwin Monson; Edwin's wife, Edna; her sister, Fern Paulsen; and Fern's husband, Alfred; her brother, Cyrus J. Monson; M.O. Warddrip; Margaret Warddrip; Kathryn Warddrip; and Maxine Warddrip, her sisters-in-law. She is survived by her daughter, Evelyn (Corky) Van Gundy; her son-in-law, Richard Van Gundy; a grandson, Richard Van Gundy II; a granddaughter, Georgia Van Gundy; Georgia's husband, Chad Kleppe; her brother-in-law, Harlan Warddrip of Scottsdale, AZ; sister-in-law, Arline Gans; four nephews, Cyrus Monson (Marolyn), Eugene Monson (Charlene), Marlin Monson and Riley Warddrip (Judy); five nieces, Susan Pauley (Buck), Linda Dahl (Gene), Loma Wahling (Dave), Lana Schwieso (Richard), Debra Freund (Tom) and Maxine Pircher (Hans); great nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at St. Johns Lutheran Church Dec. 28, 2004, with burial at Chapel Hill Gardens Cemetery. Merle Hay at Chapel Hill in charge of arrangements.