

Ethel White, 70

May 23, 1935 - Nov. 30, 2005 ✓

George White, 68

Dec. 10, 1934 - June 30, 2002

HARLAN — Ethel Jeanette White, the daughter of Marius and Meta (Jorgensen) Pedersen, was born May 23, 1935, in rural Kimballton. She attended Drake University. She was an avid reader, especially of history.

George Neelay White, the son of George Willard White and Edna (Young) White, was born Dec. 10, 1934, in Ashland, KY. He attended Marshal College. George served in the U.S. Air Force Feb. 11, 1954 to Feb. 10, 1956.

Ethel and George were married Aug. 16, 1957, at Immanuel Lutheran Church in Harlan. Ethel was employed at Union Pacific in Omaha, NE for many years. George was in paint equipment sales and then in car sales. In 1985 they began managing apartment buildings in Elyria and Lorain, OH.

Ethel was preceded in death by her parents and her husband. Her survivors include a brother, Morris Pedersen of Manhattan Beach, CA; two sisters, Martha (Robert) McCord and Clara (Harlan) Simonds, both of Harlan; and nieces and nephews.

George was preceded in death by his parents. He is survived by a sister, Emma Lou (Waymond) Harris of Greenup, KY; and nieces and nephews.

Graveside services were held May 20, 2006, at Immanuel Lutheran Cemetery in Kimballton, with Pastor Henry Flessner officiating. Ohde Funeral Home of Kimballton in charge of arrangements.