

Memorial service for Bill Wager

Shelby resident, Bill Wager, died Sept. 20 at the age of 90. A memorial service was held in the Shelby Lutheran Church Nov. 5, with a dinner afterwards at the Shelby Community Building. Among those attending were his wife, Nelda; their children, Douglas Wager of Shelby; Debra Wager of Harlan; and Donna and Rick Childers of Chicago; their grandson, Josh and Katie Wager and Joshua II of Belmont, TX; all of Bill and Nelda's nieces and nephews of Hastings and Lincoln, NE; and lots of friends. Several grandchildren and great-grandchildren were unable to attend the memorial service. The ladies of the Shelby Lutheran Church provided food and served the dinner. Joni Eggers of Avoca was among the many friends attending the service and the dinner.
