Zaiser rites held in Nevada

The community received word of the death of Bernadette (Rosenthal) Zaiser, 81, of Sparks, NV. She was the daughter of the late John and Mamie Rosenthal, all former residents of this community. Bernadette and her late husband, Francis Zaiser who died in 1980 were residents of here when Francis was the depot agent for a number of years for the Milwaukee Railroad going through Portsmouth before leaving to live in CA and NV. She was a 1930 graduate of St. Mary's High School of Portsmouth.

Bernadette is survived by six children, Noel and Judy Zaiser of Carson City, NV; Mary, Paul, John and Jean Zaiser, all of Sparks, NV and Gene and Ruth Miller of Carlisle, PA; eight grandchildren; a sister Mary Agnes (Rosenthal) Chase of Omaha and a brother Paul Rosenthal of Minneapolis, MN.

Her funeral Mass was held Feb. 21 at the St. Theresa Catholic Church in Reno, NV. If anyone wishes to send a card to the family, the address is: Bernadette Zaiser family, 675 Parlenti Lane, No. 116, Sparks, NV 89431.
