[The Des Moines Tribune, Friday April 14, 1972, page 21]

Services for Mrs. Florence G. Barkley, 91, of Norwalk will be at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Norwalk Christian Church, of which she was a member. Burial will be in PleasantRidgeCemetery at Orillia.

Mrs. Barkley died of a heart attack Wednesday at the Ramsey Memorial Home in Des Moines after a short illness.

She was born in BooneCounty but lived in WarrenCounty most of her life. She was a member of the Norwalk Order of Easter Star.

She is survived by a son, Thomas of Cumming; a daughter, Mrs. Katherine Hall of Lincoln, Neb.; two sisters, Mrs. Jessie Cooper of Winterset and Mrs. Leone Trexler of Omaha, seven grandchildren and 15 great-grandchildren.

The family suggests memorials to the Norwalk Christian Church building fund. The body is at Galloway-McLaren Funeral Home in Norwalk.

[North Warren Town and County News, Thursday April 20, 1972, page 2]

Florence Gertrude Barkley was born July 14, 1880, to John and Ella Patrick in Boone County, Iowa. She passed from this life April 12, 1972, at Ramsey Memorial Home in Des Moines after a heart attack.

Most of Mrs. Barkley's life was spent in WarrenCounty, except for 18 years at Mitchellville, Iowa. In 1897, she received a teaching diploma from SimpsonCollege. She taught several terms in WarrenCounty rural schools.

In 1902, she was united in marriage to Alvin T. Barkley, who preceded her in death in 1957. To this union were born two children, Thomas of Cumming, and Kathryn, Mrs. Robert M. Hall of Lincoln, Neb., who both survive.

Other survivors are two sisters, Mrs. Jessie Cooper of Winterset, and Mrs. Leone Trexler of Omaha, Neb., seven grandchildren, and fifteen great-grandchildren.

Mrs. Barkley was a lifelong member of the Christian Church, a 50-year member of the Order of the Eastern Star, and a charter member of the Orillia Embroidery Club.
