Obituary

[The Des Moines Tribune, Wednesday February 4, 1976; page 29]

Paul H. Blakely, 68 of 2420 Fifty-sixth St. died of a liver ailment and emphysema Tuesday at Des Moines General Hospital after an illness of a year.

Services will be at 1 p.m. Thursday at Westover Funeral Home, with burial in the Orilla Cemetery in Orilla near Cumming in Warren County.

Born in Chicago, Illinois Mr. Blakely lived in Des Moines since 1928. He was a retired self-employed contractor and a member of the Moingona Masonic Lodge, the Des Moines Consistory, the Za-Ga-Zig Shrine and the Westminster United Presbyterian Church.

Survivors include his wife, Louise; four daughters, Dana and Susan, both at home, Mrs. Jean Hunt of Ames and Mrs. Mary Ann Johnson of Missoula, Montana, and two granddaughters.

The family suggests memorial contributions to the Za-Ga-Zig Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital or the Westminster Church.
