When I Must Leave You

When I must leave you for a little while,

    Please do not grieve and shed wild tears

And hug your sorrow to you through the years,

    But start out bravely with a gallant smile;

And for my sake and in my name
Live on and do all things the same,
Feed not your loneliness on empty days
But fill each waking hour in useful ways,
Reach out your hand in comfort and in cheer
And I in turn will comfort you and hold you near;
And never, never be afraid to die,
For I am waiting for you in the sky!

Good Night, Mother Mine

Life is so wonderful, life such as thine;
Death cannot end it, dear mother of mine!
Morning will come again gilding the trees,
Spring notes will sound again sweet on the breeze!
This is not dying, my brave mother dear,
Thou art but climbing up out of here,
Out of thy struggles and out of thy pain,
Out where with Christ life will flower again.
So then, good night, mother, only good night;
Turn thy dear face to the mansions of light.
Life is so wonderful, life such as thine;
Death cannot end it,
Good night, Mother mine!
