

fleets everywhere the care and supervision of its owner, who is a practical and able agriculturist.

On the 7th of November, 1906, Mr. Kunt was united in marriage to Miss Stella Zobal, and they became the parents of two children, Adeline Cecilia and Helen Antonette. Mr. Kunt is a member of the Roman Catholic church and he gives his political allegiance to the democratic party. He has been honored by his fellow citizens by election to the office of assessor of Jackson township and he is now serving in that position, discharging his duties in a creditable, far-sighted and able way. He is a progressive, loyal and public-spirited citizen and a young man of rare ability, his industry and firm determination assuring his future success.

HENRY L. MEYER.

Since 1891 Henry L. Meyer has been an esteemed and respected resident of Bloomfield township and during the entire period has engaged in general farming, his holdings now comprising two hundred and fifty-three acres on sections 15 and 16. He was born in Clayton county on the 28th of October, 1862, and is a son of Frederick and Louisa (Wilke) Meyer, natives of Germany. The parents came to America in 1854 and settled in Clayton county, Iowa, where the father turned his attention to farming. In his early years he had followed the tailor's trade, but during the latter period of his life he gave all of his attention to agricultural pursuits, dying upon his farm in October, 1884. His wife has also passed away, her death having occurred in October, 1911. To their union were born nine children: Charles H., of Allamakee county; Theodore H., of Minden, Nebraska; Lavina, the wife of Fred Wild, of Benton county, Iowa; Henry L., of this review; J. P., of Clayton county, Iowa; Mary E., the wife of Fred Misner, of Elkader; Emma, who married George Englehart, of Luana, Iowa; Fred, deceased; and August C, of Castalia.

Henry L. Meyer remained at home until he was twenty-one years of age and after laying aside his books became a teacher, following this occupation for eight years after attaining his majority. He came to Winneshiek county in 1891 and in Bloomfield township purchased one hundred and sixty acres of land, turning his attention to general farming. He has since added ninety-three acres to this property and his land lies on sections 15 and 16 and constitutes one of the finest farms in his locality. Mr. Meyer has made substantial improvements in buildings and equipment and has neglected nothing that will add to the attractiveness or value of his place, the appearance of which is evident of his careful management and constant supervision. In addition to the cultivation of his fields he is also extensively interested in stock-raising and this branch of his activities forms an important source of income to him.

On the 26th of June, 1890, Mr. Meyer was united in marriage to Miss Lizzie Senholz, a daughter of Carl and Barbara (Beck) Senholz, natives of Bavaria, who came to America in 1852, locating in Clayton county, Iowa. The mother passed away September 4, 1912, but the father survives, making his home in Postville. To this union were born seven children: Minnie, the wife of Henry
